Name of the Activity: Guest Lecture on "Consumer Rights and Duties"
(Organized on the occasion of National Consumer Rights Day)

Objectives:

1. To create awareness among students about consumer rights and responsibilities.
2. To educate students regarding consumer protection laws in India.
3. To encourage students to become responsible and informed consumers.
4. To develop legal awareness related to consumer exploitation and remedies.

On the occasion of National Consumer Rights Day, the Department of Commerce & Management organized a Guest Lecture to spread awareness about consumer rights and legal protections available to consumers.

The programme began with a warm welcome and introductory address by the Head of the Department, Dr. S. V. Patil, who highlighted the importance of consumer awareness in today's market-oriented economy.

The resource person for the programme was Hon. Advocate Neeta Parit Madam, who delivered an informative and insightful lecture on the topic "Consumer Rights and Duties". She explained various consumer rights, duties of consumers, common unfair trade practices, and the role of consumer courts in protecting consumer interests.

The lecture was highly interactive and enriched with real-life examples, which helped students to understand the practical aspects of consumer protection laws. The students actively participated and showed keen interest throughout the session. The programme was presided over by Hon. Prin. Arun shinde, who in his presidential address emphasized the importance of consumer awareness and highlighted the role of education in empowering students to protect their rights as responsible consumers. Mr. A.S. Bille proposed the vote of thanks.

Outcomes:

- Students gained awareness about consumer rights and legal remedies.
- Enhanced understanding of consumer protection laws and responsibilities.
- Developed confidence among students to raise their voice against unfair trade practices.
- Encouraged responsible consumer behavior among learners.
